

How to Contribute to Operation Fuel

Here are eight easy ways you can help us keep the heat on this winter:

- Send a check, payable to Operation Fuel, to:
Operation Fuel
One Regency Drive
Bloomfield, CT 06002
- Support Operation Fuel through the Add-a-Dollar program with your utility company. You may donate $1 or more by adding the amount to your utility bill, both paper bills and electronically. 100 percent of funds raised through the Add-a-Dollar program are used for energy assistance grants. The utility companies also match a percentage of Add-a-Dollar funds raised. You may contact your local utility companies to become enrolled in an automatic Add-a-Dollar program.
- You can write out a check to Operation Fuel and enclose it with your utility bill. The utility companies will forward all checks to Operation Fuel.
- Donate online through Operation Fuel's secure website, www.operationfuel.org
- Honorary and Memorial gifts to Operation Fuel can express sympathy, love, appreciation, congratulations or best wishes to those you honor or remember. When you make an honorary or memorial gift, we will send an appropriate, personalized acknowledgment to individuals or family members letting them know you've honored them or a loved one with a gift.
- Take advantage of your company's matching gifts program.
- Plan for the future security of Operation Fuel by considering a planned gift through your estate plans, such as gifts of stock, real estate, and life insurance policies. For more information please contact the Director of Development at (860) 243-2345, ext. 303.

Operation Fuel Keeps the Heat On!

Amid the rising cost of heating oil, gas and electricity, Operation Fuel continued its mission by keeping the heat on for thousands of Connecticut homes this past winter. In the process, the emergency energy assistance organization reached several milestones.

For the first time in its 30-year history, Operation Fuel gave out more than $1 million in energy assistance grants to Connecticut families and individuals. This was nearly a 20 percent increase over the previous year's $850,000, which at the time was the most the organization had ever given out in a single year.

The 2006-2007 heating season also marked the release of Operation Fuel's Home Energy Affordability Gap Report, which documented that Connecticut's low-income residents were facing a home energy affordability gap of nearly $255 million. According to the report, the average shortfall between actual and affordable home energy bills is over $1,100 per low-income household in Connecticut.

The report reinforced the critical need for an affordable energy rate for low-income families and elderly residents. Operation Fuel currently is working toward this goal with the state legislature and other policy makers.

NBC 30 news anchor Keisha Grant was the evening's master of ceremonies at the 30th anniversary dinner fundraiser. State Treasurer Denise Nappier and WDRC radio talk show host Brad Davis were the dinner co-chairs. The dinner raised $53,000. From left are Nappier, Davis and Grant.

Now gas and electrical utility customers can add more than one dollar to their monthly bill, whether paid by mail or online. State statute mandates that utilities with at least 75,000 customers must participate in Add-a-Dollar, while home heating oil dealers take part voluntarily.

100 percent of the donations made to the Add-a-Dollar program are used for emergency energy assistance and a percentage is matched by utility companies. Last winter, the Add-a-Dollar program raised more than $380,000 for Operation Fuel.

30th Anniversary Dinner Raises $53,000

Operation Fuel's 30th anniversary dinner, which was held in April, raised more than $53,000 for Connecticut families who need emergency energy assistance.

More than 250 people attended the dinner, which paid tribute to the late Governor Ella Grasso and late Father Thomas Lynch, of the Archdiocese of Hartford, for starting Operation Fuel in 1977.

Add-a-Dollar Program

Due to a diligent effort by Operation Fuel, the state legislature voted to change the Add-a-Dollar program beginning this winter.

The Dilemma: Heat or Eat?

Heating your home adequately or eating nutritiously is becoming a daily dilemma for many lower-income Connecticut families. It's a decision that either way can have a serious impact on children's health.

According to the national Children's Sentinel Nutrition Assessment Program (C-SNAP), lower-income children had fewer health problems when their families received energy assistance compared with children in households with no energy assistance. C-SNAP data suggests that participating in the federal Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) positively affects children's health and development.

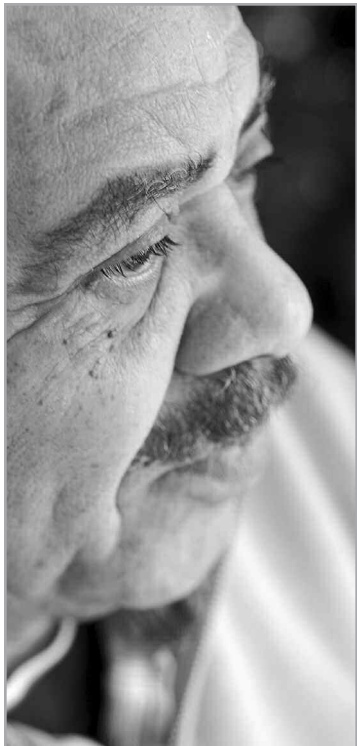

C-SNAP found that children whose families receive energy assistance, such as LIHEAP, have:

- A lower nutritional risk for growth problems
- No evidence of increased obesity
- Less chance of acute hospitalization

LIHEAP provides states with annual funding to help low-income families pay their energy bills. But many families who need LIHEAP are not eligible. Fortunately Connecticut has Operation Fuel.

Lower-income families who do not receive any energy assistance are forced to make tough choices that can have serious consequences including being forced to heat their homes through unsafe methods. As a result, many of the people suffering most are children who aren't even old enough to attend school.

Operation Fuel in action: People Making a Difference

When 75-year-old Curtis Ralls, of Pawcatuck, talks about energy assistance for the elderly, his concern is not just for his family but for senior citizens throughout Connecticut.

"By the time you've paid for food, medicine, and other basic necessities, there's no money left for fuel...we need energy assistance for seniors living on a fixed income," says Ralls, a Korean War veteran. After working hard his entire life, he still works part-time to make ends meet.

His wife's health problems prevent keeping their thermostat too low, so they spend over $4,000 annually for heating oil and electricity. Fortunately, Operation Fuel was there when they needed emergency energy assistance.

Dorothy Clark volunteers for Operation Fuel -- handling emergency energy assistance for Gifts of Love, which serves Avon, Canton and Simsbury.

Last winter, she helped a recently divorced, young mother with three small children. "She was nearly in tears, behind on her utility bill with no where else to turn," remembers Clark. Another client was an elderly woman, sick and living alone in a big, old house. Both are examples of families who don't appear poor but are in crisis.

Vicki Anderson, executive director of the Pawcatuck Neighborhood Center, doesn't want anyone to be forced to choose between going without heat or using unsafe heating sources such as candles, space heaters, or stoves. And that's where Operation Fuel, she says, can make a difference. "They have a passion for what they're doing...it's wonderful to be able to pick up the phone and know they will listen with their hearts, as well as their heads."

A Word from the Executive Director

Thanks to the generosity of our many supporters and community partners, Operation Fuel gave out over $1 million in emergency energy assistance for the first time in its 30-year history. The families and individuals who we help are struggling to pay their energy bills and are in a crisis situation, but have no where else to turn for energy assistance. We often get calls from people who must choose between heating their homes and providing adequate nourishment for their children.

No one ever should have to make this decision. That is why every donation we receive is so very important. For every family we help, there are many more people who are suffering through the winter in inadequately heated homes. These are our neighbors...they are children, the elderly and sometimes in poor health.

Last year, we commissioned a Home Energy Affordability Gap study for Connecticut. The results were alarming. As of last year, Connecticut's lower-income residents faced a home energy affordability gap of nearly $255 million. And it now is much higher. This problem is statewide—not just confined to our urban areas. The average shortfall between actual and affordable home energy bills is over $1,100 per low-income household. That is a very frightening number. But it also is a reality of the time we live in.

We need to find long-term solutions that will help ease the energy burden that unjustly affects so many lower-income residents in Connecticut. In an effort to accomplish this, Operation Fuel has become more involved with our state's public policy system. We will continue to advocate for an affordable energy rate for low-income families and elderly residents. It is something that must happen soon.

In the meantime, Operation Fuel will do all that it can to make sure that no one goes without heat or electricity. And as long as Connecticut's residents need energy assistance, we will be there.

Thank you for your continued support and for making it possible for Operation Fuel to "Warm Thy Neighbor."

Sincerely,

Patricia Wrice, Executive Director
